Stan Kesselman,
15 West 81st Street,
New York, NY. 10024.

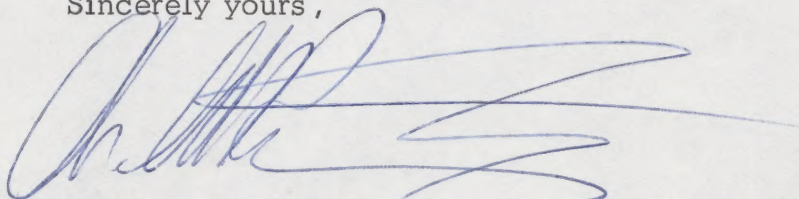

Dear Stan,

Thanks for the replacement check and for your list of threes. I think that your original check is gone, but incase it turns up around here, it will be returned to you of course.

I have a table at Miami and am debating about going or not. The weather will be miserable there then and I wonder if it will pay.

In checking over my stock I note that I have two of the 1882 threes and a local party has a third making four with your piece, so I wonder how scarce this coin really is with a normal coinage of only 1,500 pieces. Probably all of them are still for sale the way it looks. No reply has been received yet from my customer on the few dates of three quoted, so it does not look too good. If anything comes of it on the previous offers, I will re-offer yours and advise you accordingly if he is interested. Just figure for now that there is no interest to be on the safe side.

Sincerely yours,

P.S. I still can pay up to $45.00 each for 1-5 decent unc. Sesqui. $2.50 pieces.

Dear Stan,

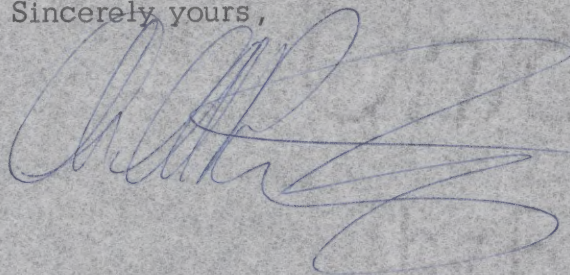

Thanks for your letter and order of the 10th instant which arrived during the midst of my moving to the new office.

The 1875-CC double eagles are sold out, but two each of the 1894-S eagles and 1916-S double eagles will be dispatched to you on Monday air mail insured. I hope that the delay does not mess you up in any manner.

Incase you are going to attend the Chicago PNG show, enclosed is an invitation for the first day.

I have never been to Disneyland and will never go there because Kruschev could not go. If it is not good enough for him, then it is not good enough for me either.

Sincerely yours,

Stan Kesselman,
15 West 81st Street,
New York, N.Y. 10024.

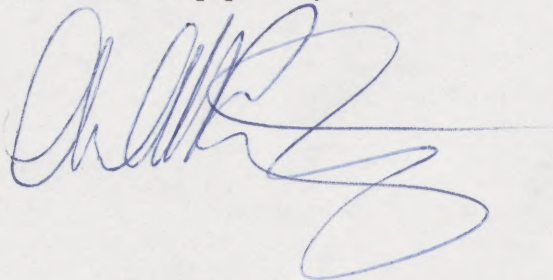

Dear Stan,

Your letters of the 9th and 13th are at hand and I note the pieces of interest to you.

Only one each of the dates you ordered in your letter of the 13th less the 13-S eagle which is sold are in stock. Since they are not too expensive pieces or rather not too much higher than normal coins with all the gold fever going on, I would prefer to sit back and wait to see what happens next week. If gold gets back to normal, I'll send along what I can. The stuff purchased on my trip has not yet arrived since I am awaiting the import licenses for same. As soon as it gets here, firm quotes will be made. To anticipate their ultimate arrival, I did send in ad copy to the "Scrapbook" which as a matter of fact will be my last advertisement their now that the idiots running Coin World are taking it over.

Another 1908-S $20 is available to me which could be quoted to you slightly under $200.00 should you be interested.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Stan,

Thanks for your check covering the two eagles. I sent to you on the 17th via airmail in a small box the 1857-O double eagle. Let me know if it has not yet been received. Maybe, a sale has been made to the Post Office. Nothing else is on hand from your wants unless you want a half dozen unc. 1916-S double eagles at $82.50 each as a lot.

Sincerely yours,

Stan Kesselman,
15 West 81st Street,
New York, N.Y. 10024.

Dear Stan,

Thanks for your letter of the 17th July and for your offering of the Cuban 5 Peso coins. The five Peso pieces are not of interest to me since I am a seller at approximately the same price. On the other hand my buying trip this year to Europe for better date coins of the US series was way on the poor side. Thus I have nothing to offer to you that will mean anything. I'll bring with me to Philly what I have left from the old stock. Most of the medium priced stuff in fives and tens has gone down the drain as common.

Sincerely yours,
